+ board member
William G. Posey has been on staff at the James Madison University School of Music since 1981. For 31 years he was the assistant director of the Marching Royal Dukes, and is currently assistant to the Director of the JMU School of Music. During his tenure at JMU he has conducted concert bands, theater orchestras and choral groups. Bill performs regularly with the Massanutten Brass Band, the Waynesboro Symphony Orchestra, the Just Jazzin’ big band, the Massanutten Brass Quintet, the Valley Wind Ensemble, and other chamber groups and solo performances.

In addition to his playing, Bill was the director of the 65-piece Harrisonburg/Rockingham Concert Band from 1988 until 2012. Bill was a clinician for United Music Enterprises and Bands of America, teaching clinics and master classes throughout the United States, Canada and Great Britain. He is active as an adjudicator for both marching and concert band festivals. Bill is a past recipient of Phi Mu Alpha’s Orpheus Award and Kappa Kappa Psi’s A. Frank Martin Award for his contributions to music and music education.

His professional affiliations include VA Music Educators Association, National Association for Music Education, the International Trumpet Guild, the North American Brass Band Association, Bugles Across America, Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia and Kappa Psi.

Don Brubaker, a native of Roanoke, VA, began musical studies on the violin at the age of six and on the piano and trumpet at the age of twelve. He holds a bachelor's degree in music education from West Virginia University and a master's degree in music education from the University of Illinois. Don serves as Orchestra Director at Buford Middle School and conducts the Evans Youth Orchestra, a junior high school full orchestra associated with the Youth Orchestra of Central Virginia. He lives in Albemarle County with his wife, Gayle, a piano and voice teacher. They have three grown children.

Jerry Barber has been performing on Trumpet with The Municipal Band of Charlottesville for over 30 years and is the current President of the Bands Board of Directors. Jerry also directs The Charlottesville Brass Quintet and is a member of the Fredericksburg Community Concert Band.

A retired Electrical Engineer with a 35 year career at GE, Jerry lives on Lake Anna with his wife Carol and enjoys Water Skiing, Boating, Golfing and Biking. Jerry is a member of the National Ski Patrol and works at Wintergreen Resort during the winter ski season. Jerry and Carol have three son’s and four grandchildren.

Jeff Vaughan has been a music educator in Virginia, Florida and Louisiana since 1997. His teaching experience spans elementary through college levels in instrumental and general music classrooms. He holds a B.M. from Louisiana State University and a M.M. from Southeastern Louisiana University. He also holds a Ph.D. from the University of Florida in music education with an emphasis in instrumental conducting. In addition to his research interests in music assessment and secondary instrumental music education, he also performs locally as a freelance trumpet player in the central Virginia area.
