Marie Fernandez is a senior at Monticello High School. She began studying flute with Karen Pearce when she was 8 years old. In 2010, she began studying under Angela Kelly, her current teacher. In 2007, Marie joined the Youth Orchestras of Central Virginia's flute choirs and has been an active member ever since. She played in YOCV's Rita M. Evans Orchestra from 2008-2011. She is currently principal flutist of the YOCV Youth Symphony. In addition, Marie has been active in Monticello's Wind Ensemble, Jazz Band, Chamber Ensemble, Symphonic Band, and Flute Ensemble. She has been selected for both All-District Band and Albemarle County Honor Band for four consecutive years. Marie was honored to win the wind/brass division of the Wednesday Music Club High School Competition this past February. Other musical endeavors include singing with the Virginia Consort Youth Chorale, ringing with Trinity Presbyterian Church's handbell choir, and playing with her sisters, Sharon and Caroline, in a flute, cello, harp trio. Outside of music, Marie is playing varsity volleyball for Monticello, directing the student-run Shakespeare production, and pursuing photography. Marie plans to study graphic design, computer science, and/or mathematics in college.
