+ Board Member @ Asst. Conductor
James Tobin, Clarinet

James Tobin, a native of Charlottesville, is a freelance performer and clarinet instructor. He has performed with the Quad-Cities Symphony, the Richmond Symphony, the Virginia Consort, the Albemarle Ensemble, the Hampden-Sydney Music Series, the UVa Faculty Chamber Series, the Ash Lawn Opera Festival, and Opera-on-the-James. James is an active instructor and music education advocate who gives master-classes in central Virginia. James is the founder and director of the Charlottesville Clarinet Workshop, the YOCTVA Clarinet Ensemble, and Jump Start Music Lessons for beginners.

Michael Elswick, Saxophones

Mike joined the Navy in January of 1977 as a musician and toured the mid-west performing in several different groups. In 1980, He received a music scholarship to attend James Madison University in Harrisonburg, Va. During the 90's he performed locally with his own jazz quartet/quintet and with the Houserockers band. On occasion he has filled in with the Coasters, the Temptations, and Gladys Knight. He has performed for the last 15 years with Big Ray and the Kool Kats and the Ray Caddell Swing Orchestra. He is the owner and master woodwind repairman at Elswick Band Instrument Repair.
