The Municipal Band of Charlottesville would like to take this opportunity to thank the City of Charlottesville, the County of Albemarle, and all of you for the strong support you have given us in 2012. At this time of year, music and fellowship help to make things a little happier for everyone in these ongoing tough economic times. Because of your continued generosity, the Band performed over 40 full band and ensemble concerts free to our community, and maintained its commitment to a high level of musical performance that enhances the high quality of life we all enjoy here in Central Virginia. We look forward to another busy and successful year in 2013, and invite you to our website at www.cvilleband.org for upcoming concerts and news.

As you plan your holiday gatherings and your calendar for the new year, please remember that our wonderful home, the Municipal Arts Center, located at 1119 Fifth Street SW, has space available for rent at very modest fees. The MAC is conveniently located to I-64, the historic Downtown, and the University of Virginia, and has plenty of parking. See our website for more information or call Steve Layman at 434-295-9850 to schedule a visit.

We hope you enjoy our holiday program which wraps up our 2012 concert season, and ask you to please consider a special year-end contribution. Your tax deductible gift is critical to the community service provided by the Band through its music and the Municipal Arts Center facilities.

From all of us in the Municipal Band of Charlottesville, our best wishes for a joyous season filled with peace and music.
